

Yellow rat snakes are long yellow snakes with four black stripes on their backs. This harmless reptile is one of the best climbers of all snakes. They are found high in trees, searching for birds, eggs, lizards and small animals. They are named for their favorite food, RATS!